Ralph Bunche
High School

Foreword . . .

As you glance through the pages of the pictorial history of our senior year in Ralph Bunche, you will glimpse, we hope, the happy high school activities that have been our daily business.

We have tried to picture the joys, the hopes, the ideals, and the triumphs we have shared in our beloved school.

We go forth with strong determination to reach glorious heights, and well-equipped to conquer the great task which lies before us. Having known love, we go forth with love in our hearts. Having experienced the fellowship of working with and for others, we shall cooperate for the common good of humanity.

Principal's Message

Greetings:

You are to be congratulated upon this your high school graduation. This represents the second milestone in your quest for education in a formal way. First, completion of the elementary school, now the high school - what next?

When we consider that forty percent of the students in our schools become dropouts, you are to be commended doubly, and it is from you that the leadership of the nation must come. You have chosen the better part.

The investment of time, money, and effort expended in your training to this point will draw dividends only in proportion to your success.

The persons who have been concerned with your education thus far, have endeavored to lay a foundation upon which you may build the desired structure necessary for a happy, useful life.

How and what you build will be determined by your choice as individuals. May you build structures to which all of us may point with pride and of which none may be made ashamed.

Yours sincerely,

Lemuel C. Bland

CLASS SONG

Tune: "Now Is The Hour"
By: Ethel Brooks

Now is the hour that we must say good-bye,
Now we are leaving dear old Ralph Bunche High
Since we are through, we'll bid you all adieu,
The memories of our dear school will ever be true.

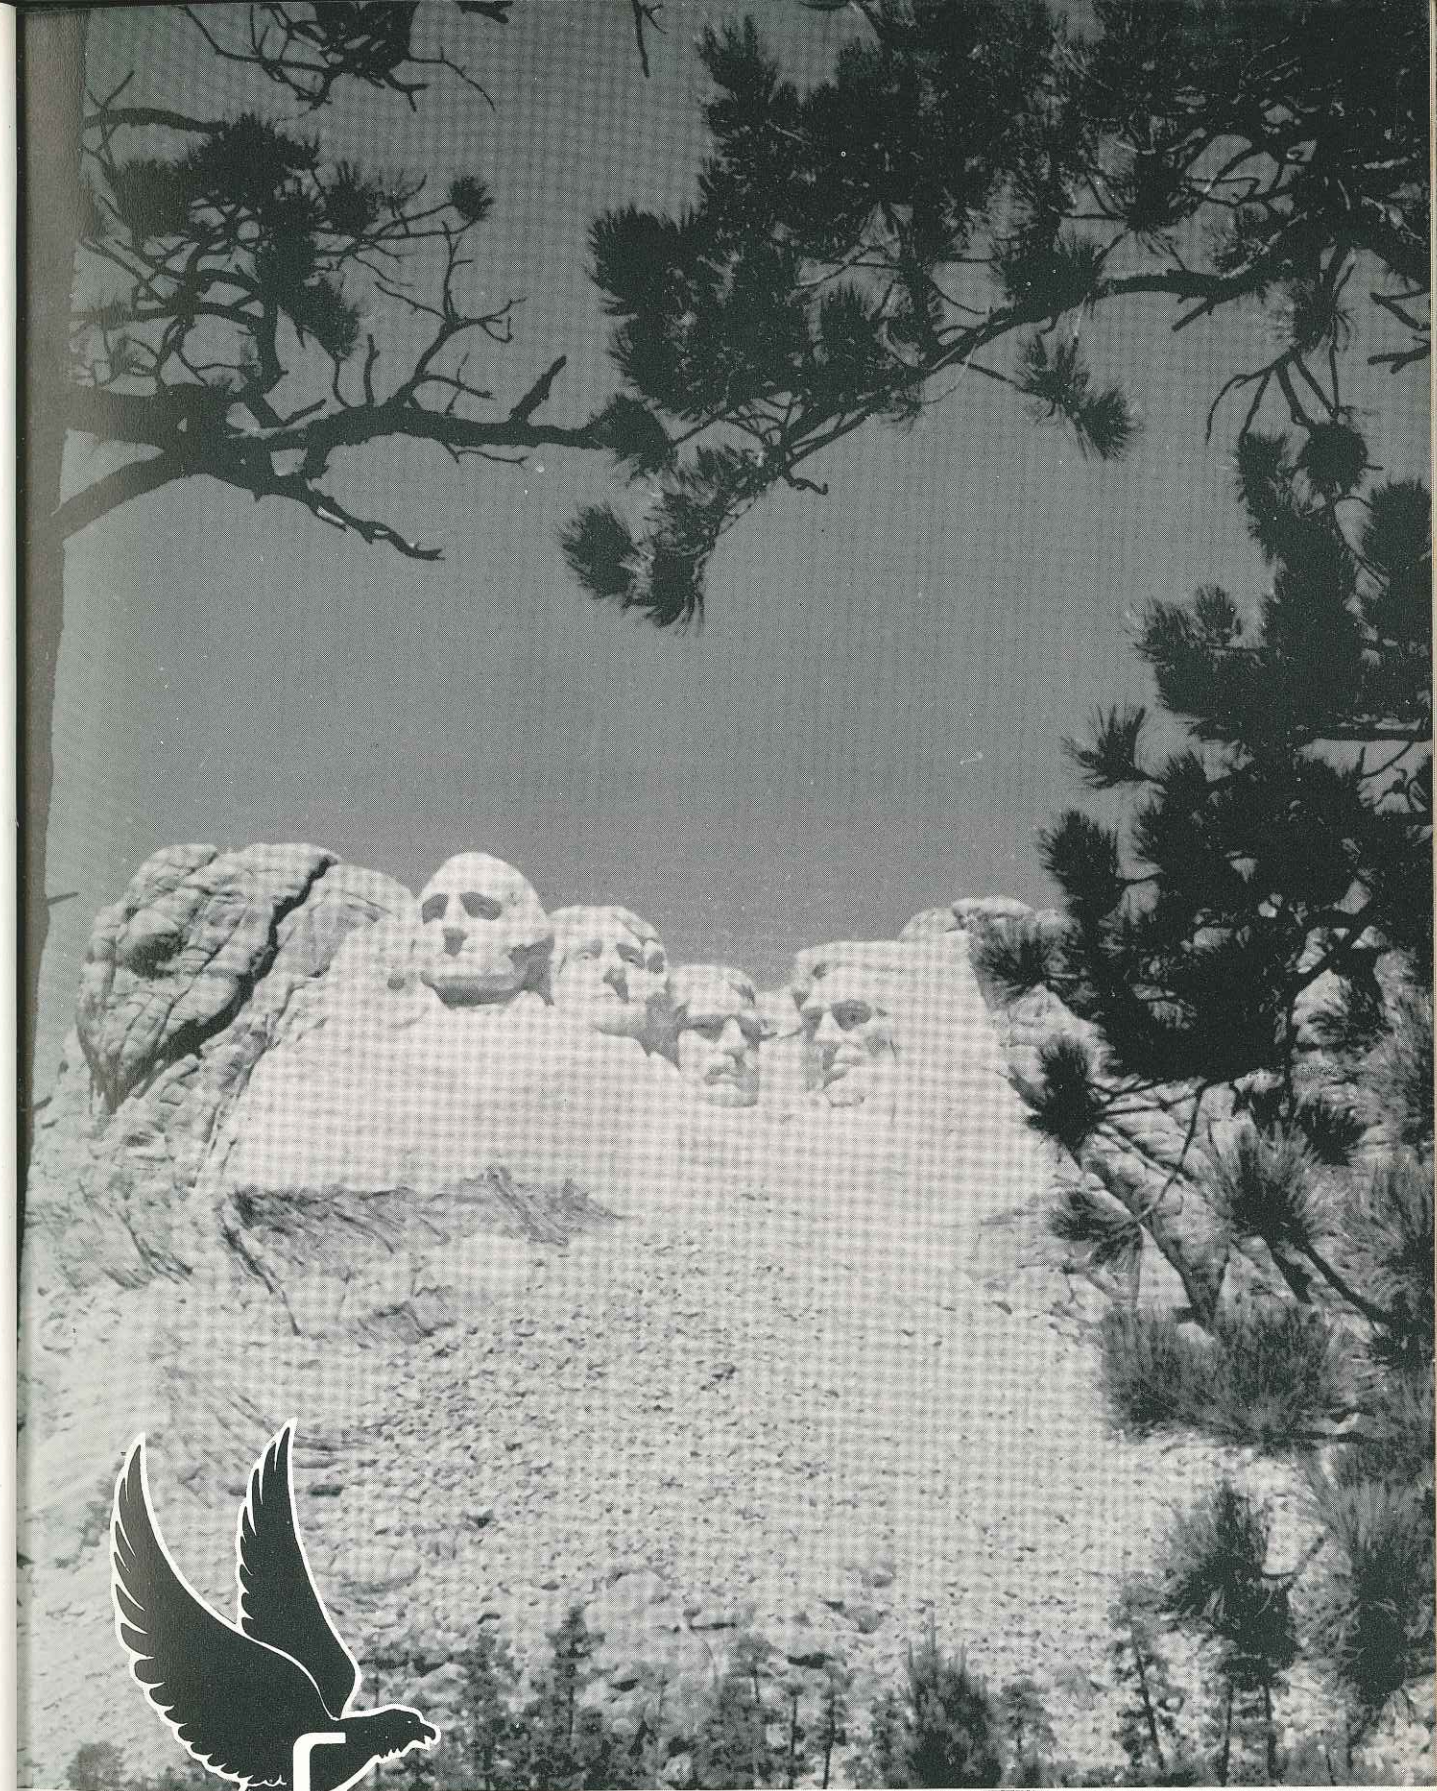

Our work is done, our victory has been won,
We're grateful to those who have helped us
win this race -
The fun we have had, the lessons have been worthwhile,
Now we must leave it to seek our future goals.

RALPH BUNCHE ALMA MATER
 By Haskell Carter and Ursula Williams

Ralph Bunche, now we rise to greet thee
 Alma Mater, hail to thee
 All our hearts are one in singing of our love and loyalty
 We have learned to know each other
 In thy light which clearly beams;
 Thou hast been a kindly mother
 Great fulfiller of our dreams.

Alma Mater, give thy children
 Each a spark from truth's pure flame
 When they bid thee farewell,
 Let thy love within them dwell,
 For our strength and joy in living
 Love and Praise to thee belong;
 Thou whose very life is giving,
 From thy children take a song.

Chorus:
 Ralph Bunche, now we rise to greet thee,
 Alma Mater, hail to thee
 To thy name we'll ever cling
 And to all thy praises sing.
